

What If Your Business Is Dead in the Next Decade? How Will You Deal With It?

Date: September 9, 2021

Venue: Scholarly Communication and Information Centre (MKIC), Saulėtekio av. 5, Vilnius

Agenda:

Time	Session
15:00-16:00 (3-4 PM)	Innovation and disruptive transformational strategy for exponential growth over the next decade, Alistair Hofert
16:00-17:00 (4-5 PM)	Discussion

This event is oriented towards managers and executives, who are interested in disruptive innovation and how to create and transform future business models.

Why should you attend?

1. Harness the biggest opportunities of the next decade
2. Gain deep insights from Singularity University for the next decade of radical change
3. Meet World Business Angels Investment Forum Innovation and entrepreneurship expert
4. Leave with 5 new insights on how to deal with the future in the best possible way

This event is free of charge. Registration is required: <https://forms.gle/zCzhBe69DHCjoH8r7>

About the guest speaker

Alistair Hofert helps clients introduce efficiency, performance improvement and new capabilities to their businesses – his focus is on enabling exponential organizations. He is a senator representing South Africa in the World Business Angels Investment Forum, a current member of the MIT Technology Review Global Panel and the McKinsey Online Executive Panel. His purpose is to amplify human capability for good.

Alistair has led multiple business functions in both the private and public sectors at a senior level over the past 20 years. During this time, he has steered multiple project engagements, ranging from designing and implementing new group reporting systems and processes to designing multi-country system solutions and methodologies. His focus for the past 10 years has been on the Financial Services industry, around the business and operating model transformation related to technologies, processes, people, culture and data, working with clients in South Africa, Africa, UK, Continental Europe, the United States and Latin America.